National Anthem

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see,
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Thro' the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled
Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

— Francis Scott Key

Alma Mater

GLORY LA SALLE

Above Explorers valiant,
Here under thine eyes,
Thy blue and gold banners
Unfurl 'neath the skies!

Chorus:

La Salle, La Salle, thy glory,
Thy triumphs we praise!
Thy name in song forever
Shall we proudly raise!

Thy sons and daughters standing
Await thy command,
Thou fortress of faith
In our God and our land!

Chorus:

La Salle, La Salle, thy glory,
Thy triumphs we praise!
Thy name in song forever
Shall we proudly raise!

— Daniel J. Rodden

Honorary Degrees

Jeremy Nowak, Ph.D.

Doctor of Humane Letters

Presented by

Sharmain Matlock-Turner

President, Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, and Member, La Salle University Board of Trustees

Jeremy Nowak, Ph.D., is President and CEO of The Reinvestment Fund (TRF), a national leader in the financing of neighborhood revitalization. TRF, which Nowak co-founded in 1985, provides financing in support of affordable housing, small businesses, commercial real estate, and community facilities across the Mid-Atlantic region.

TRF has financed more than 2,200 projects, delivering more than $690 million in capital. Projects have included 17,000 housing units, 7 million square feet of commercial real estate, 23,000 charter school seats, 35,000 jobs, and 10,000 child-care openings.

The Reinvestment Fund's Fresh Food Financing Initiative has supported the development and expansion of 35 fresh food markets in underserved communities of Pennsylvania. A recent Fresh Food Financing Initiative project is bringing a Fresh Grocer supermarket to La Salle's Good Shepherd property. The supermarket, the neighborhood's first in more than 40 years, is currently under construction as part of the Shoppes at La Salle retail development.

Nowak is Chair of the board of Mastery Charter Schools, a network of four inner-city high schools in Philadelphia. He is also Chair of the board for Alex's Lemonade Stand, a charity that raises money for pediatric cancer research, and he is a member of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

The author of numerous reports and articles on community development and related issues, Nowak holds an undergraduate degree in philosophy from Pennsylvania State University and a doctorate in cultural anthropology from the New School for Social Research. He is a fellow at the Aspen Institute's program for entrepreneurial education leaders.

Nowak received The Philadelphia Award, the city's highest civic honor, in 1995. He is married and has two children.

Honorary Degrees

Pat Ciarrocchi

Doctor of Humane Letters

Presented by

Michael Smith, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Communication, and Director, Graduate Program in Professional Communication

Pat Ciarrocchi has been a news anchor and reporter at CBS 3 in Philadelphia since 1982. An Emmy Award winner, Ciarrocchi currently co-anchors CBS 3's Eyewitness News at Noon and regularly reports for Eyewitness News at 4 and 6 p.m.

Ciarrocchi began her 26-year Philadelphia career as the station's early morning news anchor, leading the market in the growth of that time period and ultimately expanding from a half-hour format to a two-hour newscast.

She hosted Evening Magazine from 1991 to 1992 and served as CBS 3's medical reporter for five years. Some of her most memorable work was at the Vatican, where she has reported four times, including live coverage of St. Katherine Drexel's canonization in 2000 and the funeral of Pope John Paul II in 2005. In April 2008, Ciarrocchi reported live from Washington, D.C., where Pope Benedict XVI began his historic visit to the United States.

In addition to her regional Emmy Award, Ciarrocchi has received numerous professional and civic accolades, including the Gabriel Award from the National Catholic Association of Broadcasters. She was inducted into the Philadelphia Broadcast Pioneers Hall of Fame in 2000 in recognition of her accomplishments in television.

Ciarrocchi began her broadcast career at WAMS Radio in Wilmington, Del., and moved to television at WHAG-TV in Hagerstown, Md., before returning to her home state to work for CBS 3. She holds a bachelor's degree in American studies from Rosemont College and received her alma mater's highest honor, the Cresset Award, in 2006. She has received honorary doctoral degrees from Rosemont, Cabrini College, and Neumann College.

Ciarrocchi has served on the boards of the Easter Seal Society of Southeastern Pennsylvania and Susan G. Komen for the Cure. She hosted Pat Ciarrocchi's Golf Classic and Pat's Passion for Fashion Show and Auction to raise money for charity.

Ciarrocchi and her husband, David Fineman, live in Merion, Pa.

Notes on Academic Dress

The history of academic dress begins in the early days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required all “Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors” of the University of Coimbra to wear gowns. In England during the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade “excess in apparel” and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. It is still a question whether academic dress finds its sources chiefly in ecclesiastical or in civilian dress. Gowns may have been considered necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings used by medieval scholars. Hoods may have served to cover the tonsured head until superseded for that purpose by the skullcap. The cap was later displaced by a headdress similar to ones now recognized as “academic.” European institutions continue to show great diversity in their specifications of academic dress. However, when American colleges and universities adopted a system of academic apparel a half-century ago, a code was devised for all to follow.

Gowns—The gown for the bachelor’s degree has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The gown for the master’s degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, with the sleeve base hanging down in the traditional manner. The rear part of the sleeve’s oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. It may be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctor’s degree has bell-shaped sleeves and may be worn open or closed. Bachelor’s and master’s gowns have no trimmings, but the doctor’s may be faced on the front with black or colored velvet and with three bars of the same across the sleeves. If color is used, it is the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains, and it matches the edging or binding of the hood.

Hoods—Hoods are lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The binding or edging of the hood is the color indicative of the subject to which the degree pertains, except that the doctor’s cap may have its tassel of gold thread.

Caps—Mortarboards are generally worn as part of the academic costume. The long tassel fastened to the middle point of the cap’s top is either black or the color appropriate to the subject. It is customary for degree candidates to wear the tassels on the right front side before degrees are conferred and to shift them to the left when the degrees are awarded. This custom is in some respects a substitute for individual hooding.

For all academic purposes, including trimmings of doctors’ gowns, edgings of hoods, and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different subjects are as follows:

Agriculture – Maize	Medicine – Green
Arts, Letters, Humanities – White	Music – Pink
Commerce, Accountancy,	Nursing – Apricot
Business – Drab	Oratory (Speech) – Silver Gray
Dentistry – Lilac	Pharmacy – Olive Green
Economics – Copper	Philosophy – Dark Blue
Education – Light Blue	Physical Education – Sage Green
Engineering – Orange	Public Administration – Peacock Blue
Fine Arts – Brown	Public Health – Salmon Pink
Forestry – Russet	Science – Golden Yellow
Journalism – Crimson	Social Work – Citron
Law – Purple	Theology – Scarlet
Library Science – Lemon	Veterinary Science – Gray
